Data Protection Information

Data protection is legislation that requires Across to:

- Only collect the information needed to ensure it can meet its responsibilities to Across members
- Keep the information secure
- Ensure that the data is relevant and up to date
- Provide a copy of information held on an individual on the request of that individual

Managing Your Information

The information you provide, including images, will be stored electronically and/or manually by Across. Your contact details are used in the following ways:

- to keep a record of your membership of the Charity
- to send you information on Across by email or post
- to list your name and contact details in a "members' record" document

We may disclose personal data we hold if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply any contract with you or other agreements; or to protect our rights, property, or safety of our employees, customers, or others. This includes compliance with our duties under the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011 where applicable. Please note that members of Across and non-members may apply to inspect the Register of Members, containing your name and address, and that Across is legally obliged to provide such access or copy without requesting your consent first where the application is made for a proper purpose in accordance with the Companies Act.
